

CURRICULUM VITAE

María Jesús Guerrero Lebrón

Professor of Commercial Law
at the Pablo de Olavide University

MARÍA JESÚS GUERRERO LEBRÓN (born in Seville, Spain, 1972) is a Professor of Commercial Law at the Pablo de Olavide University and a permanent member of the Spanish General Codification Commission, the most important advisory body for the Spanish Government on legal and regulatory policies. She is currently President and member of various Courts of arbitration, dealing with national and international impact disputes. She collaborates regularly with Legal firms and institutions articulating defense strategies and giving general and specific legal counsel to executives.

She held numerous appointments and professional experiences due to her expertise, among others her position as a member of the Spanish Civil Air Accident Investigation Board (8 years), as well as her position as Secretary General at the International University of Andalusia (7 years). She has also been an independent director and board member of various companies, in the industrial, technological, and sanitary areas.

She has directed and participated in multiple national and international research projects and has been a Visiting Professor at various world-class universities such as Harvard University, La Sapienza, and La Sorbonne.

Among her main lines of research, her work on Company Law, Insurance Law, Contract Law and Aviation Law stands out.